Lecture Series Set at Museum

Four of the nation's leading scientists and scholars will be featured in the Los Angeles County Museum's first Science Lecture Series...

The first of the four internationally noted speakers will be Dr. Edvard Teller, director, Radiation Laboratory, University of California...

Dr. Willard Libby, winner of the 1960 Nobel Prize in Chemistry, will speak on "Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy" on February 15.

On March 15, Dr. Harrison Brown, professor of geochemistry at the California Institute of Technology, will discuss meteorites...

HC Theater Arts Presents Drama

Harbor College Theater Arts Departments turns to contemporary drama for its first evening presentation of the year, a series of three one-act plays...

Nominally priced tickets are on sale now at the college finance office, TE 4-1325, or they may be purchased on performance nights at the theater box office...

"An Evening of Theater" will first present "The Lesson," avant-garde comedy by Rumanian-born French playwright Eugene Ionesco...

All three plays will be staged arena-style in the just-constructed "Starboard Theater," located at the south end of the LAHC campus.

Town Players of New Jersey

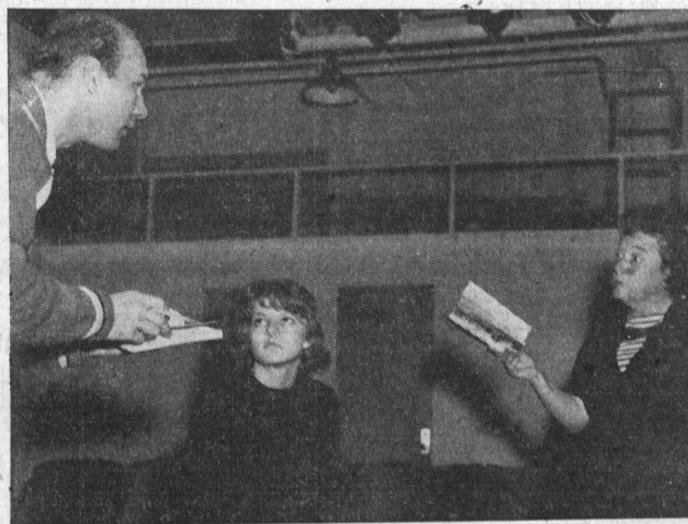

Sue Hanson has combined a career as wife and mother with college study and active membership in the Palos Verdes Players...

Supporting roles will be played by Michael Aguilar, Leroy Harrison, Vee Redding, Carrie Henson, Virginia Taylor and Frances Hulshof.

The student production staff includes Siens Sanger, Jo Lesnik, Armando Busick, Patricia Henderson, Vee Redding, Eugene Dynarski, Clem Robles, Frances Hulshof, Sonja Savar, Virginia Taylor, Stephen Lee, Ruth Bailey, Nancy Williams, Britt-Marie Carefjord, Ovetta Steele and Carole Glazier.

DRAMA PRESENTATION—At Harbor College Jan. 6, 7, 9 and 10 will be "An Evening of Theater." Rehearsals proceed as usual for the students appearing in the presentation. (Left to right) Eugene Dynarski appears as the homicidally inclined professor in Ionesco's comedy "The Lesson"; Carrie Henson as his pupil; and Jo Lesnik, his maid, pay close attention.

A GOOD BUY

Although building materials in general have gone up in price during the past five years, copper tube for hot and cold water lines costs less than it did in 1955. Rust-proof plumbing remains economical as well as desirable.
